WINEMAKING

Arctic Fox Grand Cuvée is a blend of white varieties that reflect all that is desirable from McLaren Vale's climate and soils. The wine is a crisp yet refreshing and flavour-some style designed to suit our Australian summer lifestyle. Cool fermented with aromatic and fruit flavour preservation in mind, the crisp, structural and vibrant contribution of the Vermentino is filled out by the Verdelho's rich, tropical mid palate and yeasty lees stirred characteristics, while the Sauvignon Blanc twist gives the aromatics a lift and provides a herbaceous edge.
